

BUILDING FINE CUSTOM HOMES IN GREATER CINCINNATI SINCE 1990

Built on Our Values with Your Vision

As one of the premier custom builders in the tri-state area, we believe that a home should reflect the character and enhance the lifestyle of its owner. We pride ourselves on our transparency and integrity developing a strong relationship with our clients, which in turn, helps us design and build a home of superior quality that offers the owners a truly personalized balance of features and value while creating a home that is unique in its design, craftsmanship, and living enjoyment.

The Sequoia Difference

Almost every builder says they build a quality home. Quality should be, and is more than a tagline. With us, quality is a philosophy; it is in everything we do. From footers to the finished product and subcontractors to suppliers, we have worked to identify those people and companies that share our expectations and philosophy. We build every home as though we are building our own.

From Concept to Completion

Sequoia was founded by Tom Nare in 1990. Tom, along with his son Kevin, with their 60 years of combined experience, have gained a vast knowledge of residential and commercial construction. Our goal has been to become one of the top builders in the tri-state area. Our goal was never, and is still not, to become a large organization. We take on only those projects we can personally supervise. And so, when you build with our company, you build with us. We work very closely with each client, whether it is a small remodel or a custom home, to assure you the highest level of personal attention and satisfaction from concept to completion.

A Word from Our Fans

"Sequoia is one of the top of builders in the Tri-state, the uncompromising quality and attention to detail are second to none. They are great builders to sub for and I have only witnessed happy and well-satisfied clients on their projects."

– Audio & Video Integrity/Northern Kentucky

"Sequoia construction is simply superior across the board – from their quality of construction to their attention to custom details, the results of both of our projects have far exceeded our expectations. Six years ago we chose Sequoia to build our dream home. We were fortunate enough to have them come back to finish out our lower level this past year. A wonderful company that truly cares about their customers and creating top-quality results – you will be thrilled! Thank you Sequoia for building our forever home for our family!" – Alicia C/Cincinnati
